

Follow-up Mailings

NSFG

Receive invitation letter

Complete brief screening survey online

Only 5 minutes

If eligible, access
NSFG survey online
Receive $60
token of appreciation

Your household was chosen for an important Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) National Center for Health Statistics study. The study will help researchers collect key information on health and health care, plans and experiences related to having children, and other general health behaviors in the United States!

5-1/2"

Go online using any internet-enabled device; however, use of a computer or tablet is recommended:

- <https://nsfg.cdc.gov>
- Log in using your passcode: <<passcode>>

Questions? Call us toll-free at 800-262-4494

QR code

For more information about the study, please visit the NSFG website at www.cdc.gov/nchs/nsfg/.

Vaya a la página de Internet usando cualquier dispositivo con conexión a internet; sin embargo, se recomienda el uso de una computadora o tableta:

- <https://nsfg.cdc.gov>
- Inicie sesión usando su contraseña: <<passcode>>

QR code

¿Tiene preguntas? Llame gratis al 800-262-4494 Para obtener más sobre el estudio, visite el sitio web de la encuesta en www.cdc.gov/nchs/nsfg/.

Thank you!

P1 First Reminder - Pressure-Sealed Card

Dear [CITY] Resident,

It's not too late to participate in the National Survey of Family Growth (NSFG)! The information is used to help understand health and health behaviors in the United States. If you have already completed your brief screening survey, thank you! If you have not, please have an adult in your household complete the 5-minute screening survey online.

Based on the answers to the screening questions, you or someone else in your household may be asked to complete the main NSFG survey. The selected person will receive $60 as a token of appreciation.

Go online:

- <https://nsfg.cdc.gov>
- Log in using your password: <<passcode>>

Or scan this QR code:

QR
code

The NSFG has been conducted by the National Center for Health Statistics (NCHS) since 1973. This study provides key information on health and health care, plans and experiences related to having children, and other general health behaviors. NCHS has asked RTI International (RTI), a nonprofit research organization, to carry out the survey.

If you have questions, you may call RTI toll-free at 800-262-4494. This number is answered Monday – Friday, 9am - 5pm (ET). You may also send an email to surveyhelpdesk@rti.org.

For more information about the study and for examples of how NSFG data are used, please visit the NSFG website at www.cdc.gov/nchs/nsfg/.

Thank you for your consideration.

Anjani Chandra, Ph.D.
Principal Investigator
National Center for Health Statistics

Andy Peytchev, Ph.D.
Principal Investigator
RTI International

Complete your brief screening survey today!

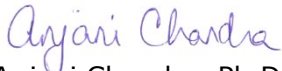

Your household was recently chosen for an important study being done by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's (CDC) National Center for Health Statistics. The National Survey of Family Growth (NSFG) helps researchers understand health and health behaviors in the United States!

Complete your brief screening survey by going to <https://nsfg.cdc.gov> using any internet-enabled device; however, use of a computer or tablet is recommended. Log in using your passcode: [PASSCODE]. If you have questions, please call our study help desk toll-free at 800-262-4494 or email us at surveyhelpdesk@rti.org.

QR code

If an adult in your household is unable to complete the brief screening survey online, one of our professional interviewers may contact you at your home to complete it in person.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Anjani Chandra, Ph.D.
National Center for Health Statistics

P1 Third Reminder - Postcard

Andy Peytchev, Ph.D.
RTI International

Dear [CITY] Resident,

Your household was recently chosen for an important study being done by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's (CDC) National Center for Health Statistics. The study provides key information on health and health care, plans and experiences related to having children, and other general health behaviors. The information is used to help understand health and health behaviors in the United States.

NCHS has asked RTI International (RTI), a nonprofit research organization, to carry out the survey.

Please have an adult in your household follow these steps to complete the 5-minute screening survey online using any internet-enabled device; however, use of a computer or tablet is recommended.

Go online:

- <https://nsfg.cdc.gov>
- Log in using your passcode: <<passcode>>

Or scan this QR code:

QR
code

Based on the answers to the screening questions, you or someone else in your household may be asked to complete the main NSFG survey. The selected person will receive $60 as a token of appreciation.

If your household is unable to complete the brief screening survey online by [FILL PHASE 2 START DATE], one of our interviewers will try to contact you to complete it in person.

For more information about the study and for examples of how NSFG data are used, please visit the NSFG website at www.cdc.gov/nchs/nsfg/. If you have questions, you may call RTI's toll-free number - 800-262-4494. This number is answered Monday – Friday, 9am - 5pm (ET). You may also send an email to surveyhelpdesk@rti.org.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Anjani Chandra, Ph.D.
Principal Investigator
National Center for Health Statistics

Andy Peytchev, Ph.D.
Principal Investigator
RTI International

P1 Fourth Reminder - Last Letter