

INCOME WITHHOLDING FOR SUPPORT - Instructions

The Income Withholding for Support (IWO) is the OMB-approved form used for income withholding in:

- Tribal, intrastate, and interstate cases enforced under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act
- All child support orders initially issued in the state on or after January 1, 1994
- All child support orders initially issued (or modified) in the state before January 1, 1994, if arrearages occur

This form is the standard format prescribed by the Secretary in accordance with section 466(b)(6)(a)(ii) of the Social Security Act. Except as noted, the following information is required and must be included.

Please note:

- For the purpose of this IWO form and these instructions, “state” is defined as a state or territory.
- Dos and don'ts (<https://acf.gov/css/training-technical-assistance/using-income-withholding-support-form-dos-and-donts>) on using this form are available on the OCSE website.

I. Sender Information: (Completed by the Sender) Check one box for fields 1a – 1d.

1a. Income Withholding Order/Notice for Support (IWO). Check the box if this is an initial IWO.

1b. Amended IWO. Check the box to indicate that this form amends a previous IWO. Any changes to an IWO must be done through an amended IWO.

1c. One-Time Order/Notice For Lump Sum Payment. Check the box when this IWO is to attach a one-time collection of a lump sum payment after receiving notification from an employer/income withholder or other source. When this box is checked, enter the amount in field 14, Lump Sum Payment, in the Amounts to Withhold section. Additional IWOs must be issued to collect subsequent lump sum payments.

1d. Termination of IWO. Check the box to stop income withholding on a child support order. Complete all applicable identifying information to aid the employer/income withholder in terminating the correct IWO.

- *The OMB expiration date is printed on the IWO Instructions.
 - o However, the IWO sent on a case does not expire on the OMB expiration date—once the IWO has been sent to the employer, the IWO is in effect until it is terminated by the Issuing Agency.
 - o The Issuing Agency must make any system updates to implement the currently approved IWO form as soon as possible. In the interim, OMB extended the expiration date of the previously approved form to allow child support agencies to issue an IWO until programming for the currently approved form is complete.

1e. Date. Date this form is completed and/or signed.

1f. Checkboxes:

Check this box if the obligor may have been reported as an Employee

Check this box if the obligor may have been reported as an Independent Contractor

These checkboxes may be used to indicate the obligor's employment status. Whether either, both, or neither box is checked is optional, but the checkboxes must be included in the order.

An employer remains responsible to determine whether the named obligor is an employee or independent contractor. IWOs are applicable to employee and non-employees.

Incorrect worker status is not a criterion for employers or income withholders to reject an IWO.

NOTE: This form may be used to withhold from all income sources as provided by state law such as workers' compensation and financial institution accounts.

1g. Child Support Agency (CSA), Court, Attorney, Private Individual/Entity (Check one box).

Check the appropriate box to indicate which entity is sending the IWO. If this IWO is not completed by a state or tribal CSA, the sender should contact the CSA (see State Income Withholding Contacts and Program Requirements) (<https://acf.gov/css/contact-information/state-income-withholding-contacts-and-program-requirements>) to determine if the CSA needs a copy of this form to facilitate payment processing.

NOTE TO EMPLOYER/INCOME WITHHOLDER: This IWO must be regular on its face. The IWO must be rejected and returned to sender under the following circumstances:

- IWO instructs the employer/income withholder to send a payment to an entity other than a state disbursement unit (for example, payable to the custodial party, court, or attorney). Each state is required to operate a state disbursement unit (SDU), which is a centralized facility for collection and disbursement of child support payments. Exception: If this IWO is issued by a court, attorney, or private individual/entity and the initial child support order was entered before January 1, 1994, or the order was issued by a tribal CSA, the employer/income withholder must follow the payment instructions on the form.
- After processing an IWO, the payment is returned to income withholder because the order information is not on the child support system and the SDU could not process the payment. The income withholder should return the payment to employee.
- Form does not contain all information necessary for the employer to comply with the withholding such as, missing Remittance Identifier, invalid case identifier or missing sender contact information.
- Form is altered or contains invalid information such as "step-down" provisions or other future events that an employer is not required to monitor.
- Amount to withhold is not a dollar amount.
- Sender has not used the OMB-approved form for the IWO.
- A copy of the underlying order is required and not included. If you receive this document from an attorney or private individual/entity, a copy of the underlying support order containing a provision authorizing income withholding must be attached.

1h. State/Tribe/Territory. Name of state or tribe sending this form. This must be a government entity of the state or a tribal organization authorized by a tribal government to operate a child support program. If you are a tribe submitting this form on behalf of another tribe, complete field 1j.

1i. Remittance ID (include w/payment). Identifier for the SDU/Tribal Payee designated in the Remittance Information section, field 22, that the employers/income withholders must include when sending payments for this IWO. The Remittance ID is entered as the case identifier on the electronic funds transfer/electronic data interchange (EFT/EDI) record.

NOTE TO EMPLOYER/INCOME WITHHOLDER: The employer/income withholder must use the Remittance ID when remitting payments so the SDU or tribe can identify and apply the payment correctly. The Remittance ID is entered as the case identifier on the EFT/EDI record. Note: You may not remit payments using the federal Office of Child Support Enforcement's (OCSE) Child Support Portal.

1j. City/County/Dist./Tribe. Optional field for the name of the city, county, or district sending this form. If entered, this must be a government entity of the state or the name of the tribe authorized by a tribal government to operate a child support program for which this form is being sent. If a tribe is submitting this form on behalf of another tribe, enter the name of that tribe.

1k. Order ID. Optional unique identifier associated with a specific child support obligation. It could be a court case number, docket number, or other identifier designated by the sender.

1l. Private Individual/Entity. Name of the private individual/entity or non-IV-D tribal child support organization sending this form.

1m. Case ID. Unique identifier assigned to a state or tribal CSA case. In a state IV-D case as defined at 45 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) 305.1, this is the identifier reported to the Federal Case Registry (FCR). ~~One IWO must be issued for each IV-D case and must use the unique CSA Case ID. For tribes,~~ this would be either the FCR identifier or other applicable identifier.

Enter the child(ren) associated with the custodial party/obligee and employee/obligor only. Child(ren) of multiple custodial parties/obligees is not to be entered on an IWO.

3f. Child(ren)'s Birth Date(s). Date of birth for each child named.

3g. Blank box. Space for court stamps, bar codes, or other information.

III. Order Information: (Completed by the Sender)

The first field identifies which state or tribe issued the order. The other fields identify the dollar amounts for specific kinds of support (taken directly from the support order) and the total amount to withhold for specific time periods.

4. State/Tribe. Name of the state or tribe that issued the support order.

5a-b. Current Child Support. Dollar amount to be withheld per the time period (for example, week, month) specified in the underlying support order.

6a-b. Past-due Child Support. Dollar amount to be withheld per the time period (for example, week, month) specified in the underlying support order.

6c. Arrears Greater Than 12 Weeks? The appropriate box (Yes/No) must be checked indicating whether arrears are greater than 12 weeks.

7a-b. Current Cash Medical Support. Dollar amount to be withheld per the time period (for example, week, month) specified in the underlying support order.

12a-b. Total Amount to Withhold. The total amount of the deductions per the corresponding time period. Fields 5a, 6a, 7a, 8a, 9a, 10a, and 11a should total the amount in 12a.

NOTE TO EMPLOYER/INCOME WITHHOLDER: An acceptable method of determining the amount to be paid on a weekly or biweekly basis is to multiply the monthly amount due by 12 and divide that result by the number of pay periods in a year. An acceptable method of determining the amount to be paid on a daily basis may be to divide the annual obligation by 260.

- The annual child support obligation is divided by 260 to derive a standardized daily withholding amount because 260 represents the typical number of paid workdays in a full-time work year (52 weeks × 5 workdays).
- This method provides a uniform and predictable allocation of the annual obligation across the employee's earning days, facilitating consistent payroll withholding regardless of variable schedules, intermittent employment, or fluctuating hours.
- For questions or further clarification contact the IWO sender.

IV. Amounts to Withhold: (Completed by the Sender)

Payments are forwarded to the SDU in each state, unless the initial child support order was entered by a state before January 1, 1994, and never modified, accrued arrears, or was enforced by a child support agency or by a tribal CSA. If permitted by the state or tribe, you may deduct a fee for administrative costs. The combined support amount and fee may not exceed the limit on the IWO.

State-specific withholding limitations, time requirements, and any allowable employer fees are available at State Income Withholding Contacts and Program Requirements (<https://acf.gov/css/contact-information/state-income-withholding-contacts-and-program-requirements>). Depending on applicable state or tribal law, you may need to consider amounts paid for health care premiums to determine disposable income and apply appropriate withholding limits.
