RE:	Qualitative Survey: Solicitation of Interest for FDIC Examiner Training (FIAS)

Under the FDIC's "fast-track" generic clearance entitled "Occasional Qualitative Surveys" (3064-0127), the FDIC submits for OMB approval the enclosed qualitive survey.

Purpose of survey. The survey, "FDIC Solicitation of Interest - International Financial Institution Analysis School (FIAS)" seeks to solicit interest and contact information for state bank examiner who wish to attend FIAS. The FDIC anticipates 50 members of the public will respond and will only issue the survey once.

Methodology. The survey will be sent electronically to the respondents. The FIAS Solicitation of Interest Survey will ask 15 questions to determine whether respondents are interested in attending FDIC Examiner training and seeking contact information for those who are interested. Both surveys are voluntary.
