Disclosures and Procedures

You can apply for several types of loan assistance, but each type will need a separate application.

Information to Prepare

To make the application process easier, please collect the following information before continuing with your application. If you do not have access to this information right now, you may proceed; however, the SBA will ask you to provide the information at a later time.

- Your federal tax return,
- Information about all insurance policies for your business,
- Information about all general partners or managing members of your business,
- Information about any persons or entities who own 20% or more of the business, and
- The designated disaster number for the event you experienced. You can search for this number here: Search Declarations \(sba.gov\)

Disclosures

Statements Required By Laws And Executive Orders

To comply with legislation passed by the Congress and Executive Orders issued by the President, Federal executive agencies, including the Small Business Administration (SBA), must notify you of certain information. You can find the regulations and policies implementing these laws and Executive Orders in Title 13, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Chapter 1, or our Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs).

☒ I have read and understand the disclosures above.

EIDL Eligibility

 You are applying for an economic injury disaster loan

This loan program is for businesses that have suffered substantial economic injury as a direct result of a declared disaster. Substantial economic injury is such that a business concern is unable to meet its obligations as they mature or to pay its ordinary and necessary operating expenses. Loss of anticipated profits or a drop in sales is not considered substantial economic injury for this purpose.

Please read carefully before responding.

By submitting an application, you are certifying the following:

- ☒ The applicant business has been, or is expected to be, directly impacted by this disaster. (NY-20021 : New York - testing mudslides for business only)
- ☐ The applicant business has been unable, or is expected to be unable, to meet its operative expenses and/or obligations due to the impact from this disaster.
- ☒ The applicant business has a physical location in the declared disaster area.
- ☐ You understand ineligible uses of EIDL funds include but are not limited to the following: expansion of facilities or acquisition of fixed assets, repairing or replacing physical damages, refinancing long-term debt, paying dividends or bonuses (except for reasonable compensation directly related to their performance of services for the business), and repaying loans from stockholders/principals (unless funds were injected as a result of the disaster and non-repayment would cause undue hardship to the stockholders/principals).

How did this Disaster financially impact your business operations?*

The applicant business has been unable, or is expected to be unable, to meet its operative expenses and/or obligations due to the impact from this disaster.

The applicant business has a physical location in the declared disaster area.

You understand ineligible uses of EIDL funds include but are not limited to the following: expansion of facilities or acquisition of fixed assets, repairing or replacing physical damages, refinancing long-term debt, paying dividends or bonuses (except for reasonable compensation directly related to their performance of services for the business), and repaying loans from stockholders/principals (unless funds were injected as a result of the disaster and non-repayment would cause undue hardship to the stockholders/principals).

Application Summary

You're nearly there!

If you have just signed your application, it may take a few minutes to fully reflect in this portal and for your E-Signature status to change to completed. If you haven't completed your e-signature process - you may need to complete the electronic signature via a link in your email.

• Additionally, all other applicable borrowers, owners, and guarantors will receive an email to complete the required e-signatures. Upon e-sign completion, you can download the complete application for your records, and the SBA will begin to process your request.

• The application will update to "Under Review" status when all signers have completed signing.
