Focus Group Nomination Form

Please use this form to identify who within your organization or individuals that your organization partners could speak with us about the training and technical assistance (TTA) services provided by American Cancer Society and/or George Washington University Cancer Center on behalf of CDC's TTA Program. Annually, ICF will conduct up to three focus groups with individuals who participated in TTA activities designed to support and build capacity of organizations and cancer coalitions that receive National Comprehensive Cancer Control Program (NCCCP) funds through cooperative agreement DP22-2202, Cancer Prevention and Control Programs for State, Territorial, and Tribal Organizations.

Each focus group will take approximately 90 minutes. Participation in the focus groups is voluntary. We ask that you also nominate one to two alternates whom we can contact if your primary nominee does not respond within the stated timeframe, is unable to participate, or does not wish to participate. Please provide the full name, title, and email address for each nominee.

Please return the completed form (below) to Charlie Arsenault, ICF Study Coordinator, via e-mail at NCCCPTTASurvey@icf.com by [DATE]. If you have any questions about completing this form, please contact the ICF Focus Group Lead, Gary Chovnick, at gary.chovnick@icf.com.

Please nominate at least one individual from within your organization or a subject matter expert or staff from a partner organization involved with the design or delivery of TTA (e.g., instructional designers, TTA content developers/subject matter experts, trainers, TTA facilitators) for NCCCP programs and coalitions. The individuals you nominate should have participated in at least one TTA activities offered by ACS or GWCC in [insert program year(s)].
