Privacy Act Statement

Sections 226A and 1872 of the Social Security Act, as amended, allow SSA to collect this information. Furnishing this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent an accurate and timely decision on any claim filed for medical insurance and/or hospital insurance.

We will use the information you provide to determine your eligibility for benefits. We may also share the information for the following purposes, called routine uses: 1) To Federal, State, or local agencies (or agents on their behalf) for administering income maintenance or health maintenance programs (including programs under the Social Security Act). Such disclosure includes, but are not limited to, release of information to: Railroad Retirement Board for administering provision of the Railroad Retirement Act relating to railroad employment; for administering the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act and for administering provisions of the Social Security Act relating to railroad employment; 2) Department of Veterans Affairs for administering 38 U.S.C. 1312, and upon request, for determining eligibility for, or amount of, veterans benefits or verifying other information with respect thereto pursuant to 38 U.S.C. 5106; 3) State welfare departments for administering sections 205(c)(2)(B)(i)(II) and 402(a)(25) of the Social Security Act requiring information about assigned Social Security numbers for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program purposes and for determining a recipient's eligibility under the TANF program; and 4) State agencies for administering the Medicaid program.

To contractors and other Federal agencies, as necessary, for the purpose of assisting the Social Security Administration (SSA) in the efficient administration of its programs. We will disclose information under the routine use only in situations in which SSA may enter into a contractual or similar agreement with a third party to assist in accomplishing an agency function relating to this system of records.

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notice (SORN) 60-0090, entitled Master Beneficiary Record, as published in the Federal Register (FR) on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1826. Additional information, and a full listing of all of our SORNs, is available on our website at SSA.gov/privacy.

CMS will maintain records received during eligibility determinations from SSA in a CMS System of Records, the Medicare Beneficiary Database (MBD) SORN 09-70-0536 as published in the Federal Register (FR) on February 14, 2018, at 71 FR 11420.
