

Federal Firearm Rights Restoration (FFRR)

If you lost your federal right to possess firearms, apply for relief here. Some common reasons for losing your firearms rights (see 18 U.S.C. §§ 921 & 922(g)) include:

- Felony conviction, i.e., a crime punishable by more than one year in prison
- Misdemeanor conviction for a domestic violence offense
- Dishonorable discharge from a military branch
- Being currently incarcerated

Federal Firearm Rights Restoration (FFRR)

A person convicted of a felony automatically loses their firearm rights under state and federal law. If you have been convicted of a felony (see 18.U.S.C §§ 921 & 922(g)), you may still be eligible to purchase a firearm if your rights have been restored under both state and federal law.

Who may be eligible

People whose federal firearms rights were lost for reasons, such as for one or more of the below (see 18 U.S.C. §§ 921 & 922(g)):

- (g)(1) Felons (state or federal) - Any person who has been convicted in any court of, a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year.
- (g)(2) Fugitives - Any person who is a fugitive from justice.
- (g)(3) Drug users - Any person who is an unlawful user of or addicted to any controlled substance (as defined in 27 C.F.R. § 478.11).
- (g)(4) Certain mental health statuses - Any person who has been adjudicated as a mental defective or who has been committed to a mental institution.
- (g)(5) Certain aliens - Any person who, being an alien-
 - (A) is illegally or unlawfully in the United States; or
 - (B) except as provided in subsection (y)(2), has been admitted to the United States under a nonimmigrant visa (as that term is defined in section 101(a)(26) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(26))).
- (g)(6) Dishonorable discharge - Any person who has been discharged from the Armed Forces under dishonorable conditions (including a sentence of dismissal of a commissioned officer, cadet, or midshipman).
- (g)(7) Citizenship renunciants - Any person who, having been a citizen of the United States, has renounced his or her citizenship.
- (g)(8) Domestic violence court order - Any person who is subject to a court order that-
 - (A) was issued after a hearing of which such person received actual notice, and at which such person had an opportunity to participate;
 - (B) restrains such person from harassing, stalking, or threatening an intimate partner of such person or child of such intimate partner or person, or engaging in other conduct that would place an intimate partner in reasonable fear of bodily injury to the partner or child; and
 - (C)
 - (i) includes a finding that such person represents a credible threat to the physical safety of such intimate partner or child; or
 - (ii) by its terms explicitly prohibits the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force against such intimate partner or child that would reasonably be expected to cause bodily injury.
- (g)(9) Domestic violence misdemeanants - Any person who has been convicted in any court of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence.

Payment

A non-refundable application fee of $30.00 is required. Payment by credit card will be accepted, as well as payment via PayPal and ACH accounts. You will be redirected to another secure website to complete the payment process.

Information for Law Enforcement

Under 18 USC 925(C), THE ATTORNEY GENERAL CAN RESTORE FEDERAL FIREARM RIGHTS TO INDIVIDUALS WHO ARE PROHIBITED FROM OWNING FIREARMS UNDER FEDERAL LAW. IF A PERSON/SEVERAL PEOPLE IN YOUR LAW ENFORCEMENT JURISDICTION HAVE APPLIED FOR SUCH RELIEF AS PART OF THE DEPARTMENT'S REVIEW PROCESS, WE INVITE YOU TO SUBMIT COMMENTS TO THE DEPARTMENT REGARDING ANY INFORMATION YOU MAY HAVE ABOUT THIS INDIVIDUAL/THESE INDIVIDUALS. YOU ARE UNDER NO OBLIGATION TO RESPOND, BUT ANY INFORMATION YOU PROVIDE WILL BE USED BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE APPLICANT SHOULD HAVE THEIR FEDERAL FIREARMS RIGHTS RESTORED. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL WILL DECIDE IF THE APPLICANT IS LIKELY TO POSE A DANGER TO THE PUBLIC AND IF RESTORATION IS IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST.

INFORMATION THAT MAY BE USEFUL TO THAT DETERMINATION INCLUDES:

- INFORMATION REGARDING CONDUCT THAT HAS NOT BEEN CHARGED OR CONVICTED
- INFORMATION INDICATING DISHONESTY, LACK OF INTEGRITY, OR UNTRUSTWORTHINESS
- INFORMATION ABOUT COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION, CIVIC ENGAGEMENT, OR HONEST DEALINGS

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

This collection meets the requirements of 44 U.S.C. § 3507, as amended by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. We estimate it will take 75 minutes to read the instructions, gather the relevant materials, and answer questions on the form. Send comments regarding the burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to Attn: Office of the Pardon Attorney, U.S. Department of Justice, Attn: OMB Number xxxx-xxxx, RFK Building, 950 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20530. The OMB clearance number, xxxx-xxxx, is currently valid. PARDON may not collect this information, and you are not required to respond, unless this number is displayed.

How long will it take to get a decision

We strongly encourage applicants to use the online application at www.justice.gov/FFRR to ensure the fastest processing times. Paper applications will take significantly longer to process. Once received, the process will follow the below steps, and it may take a lengthy period of time for a decision to be issued.

How to start

Gather all required documents before you submit. Applications that are complete before submission will typically be processed more quickly. The application starts on page 3.

- A completed OMB Form No. 1123-0017.
- Three character references from persons not related to you by blood or marriage. The character references must have known you for at least three years, must be able to attest to certain facts about you, must not be barred by 922(g) from possessing firearms, and must explicitly recommend that your federal firearms rights be restored.
- True, digital copies of all court or government documents (if applicable). These could include: indictment or information; plea agreement; factual basis for plea; probation documents prepared in anticipation of sentence; documents of when probation/supervision was terminated; the judgment of conviction; and other relevant court materials.
- Mental health records (if applicable). These could include: court or board order for commitment to a mental health facility; petition for commitment; medical and mental health records specifically addressing the diagnosis that allowed the commitment; any order finding restoration of mental competency and rights.
- History of arrests. You must provide a local arrest record for every place where you have lived even if you have not been arrested in that locality.
- Criminal history of other arrest records (if applicable). You also must provide an arrest record from any locality where you have been arrested but may not have lived.
- Military conviction, discharge, or dismissal paperwork (if applicable). This could include: military service record (DD 214, DD 214-1, DD 215); charge sheet (DD 458); and final promulgating order.
- Proof of formal renouncement of citizenship (if applicable). This renouncement must have been made before a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States in a foreign state or before the Attorney General's designee in time of war. See 8 U.S.C. § 1481(a)(5) and (6).
- Authorizations for release of information.
- Electronic fingerprints.

Fingerprints

To submit fingerprints electronically as part of your request, you may visit a participating U.S. Post Office location. After you receive an email from the Pardon Office confirming receipt of your application, you may bring the confirmation email to any of the participating U.S. Post Office locations nationwide. Additional fees may apply.

- List of participating U.S. Post Office locations

If you have a prior misdemeanor domestic violence conviction, in addition to the certified court records listed above, you should also include:

- Official records that include factual information, such as police reports.
- A record or report disclosing the identity of the victim and relation to applicant if not listed in other documentation.

Helpful tips and document requirements

- Each attachment can be no more than 50 MB.
- The total application submission must be smaller than 600 MB.
- File Types allowed with E-Forms applications:
 - Word (.doc, .docx, .docm)
 - PDF (Portable Document Format)
 - Excel (.xls, .xlsx, .xlsm)
 - Text (.txt)
 - JPG and JPEG (Joint Photographic Expert Group)
 - PNG (Portable Network Graphics)
 - Fingerprints can be submitted electronically ONLY as an EFT file through the U.S. Postal Service

Where can I find required documents:

- Federal Court Documents: PACER (has fees): uscourts.gov/court-records/find-case-pacer
- D.C. Cases: dcourts.gov/superior-court/cases-online
- Military Records: U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs: va.gov/records/get-military-service-records/

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

How will this information be used under the Privacy Act:

The purpose of collecting this information is to determine your eligibility for relief under 18 U.S.C. § 925(c) and 28 C.F.R. § 107.1, et seq., to determine whether your federal firearms rights should be restored. The routine uses of this information include making determinations on eligibility. The full list of routine uses for this information can be found in the System of Records Notice, titled "....." published in the Federal Register, and at the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Privacy and Civil Liberties' website.

You must provide the requested information to apply for a restoration of your firearms rights. Failure to do so will likely result in an inability to process the application and a denial of your request. Solicitation of your social security number is made pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 925(c) and E.O. 9397, and it will be used to verify your identity and conduct an investigation of your application. The investigation will cover the information submitted in support of application, as well as information available from public sources, from the Federal Bureau of Investigation's National Instant Criminal Background System (NICS), from previously submitted clemency applications (if applicable), and from other investigative sources as needed.

By checking the 'I Accept' box below, I acknowledge that I have reviewed and understand the Privacy Act Statement.
