4. Renewal Contract

a. Parties

(1) The Renewal Contract is a housing assistance payments contract ("HAP Contract") between the Contract Administrator and the Owner of the Project (see section 1).

(2) If HUD is the Contract Administrator, HUD may assign the Renewal Contract to a public housing agency ("PHA") for the purpose of PHA administration of the Renewal Contract, as Contract Administrator, in accordance with the Renewal Contract (during the term of the annual contributions contract ("ACC") between HUD and the PHA). Notwithstanding such assignment, HUD shall remain a party to the provisions of the Renewal Contract that specify HUD's role pursuant to the Renewal Contract, including such provisions of section 9 (applicable requirements), section 10 (statutory changes during term), and section 11 (PHA default) of the Renewal Contract.

b. Statutory authority

The Renewal Contract is entered pursuant to section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437f), and section 524 of the MAHRA.

c. Expiring Contract

Previously, the Contract Administrator and the Owner had entered into a HAP Contract ("expiring contract") to make Section 8 housing assistance payments to the Owner for eligible families living in the Project. The term of the expiring contract will expire or terminate prior to the beginning of the term of the Renewal Contract.

d. Purpose of Renewal Contract

(1) The purpose of the Renewal Contract is to renew the expiring contract for an additional term. During the term of the Renewal Contract, the Contract Administrator shall make housing assistance payments to the Owner in accordance with the provisions of the Renewal Contract.

(2) The Renewal Contract also constitutes a binding commitment for purposes of section 579 of MAHRA. In accordance with section 514 of MAHRA , the project will remain eligible for full debt restructuring if and only if prior to the expiration of this renewal contract, or any renewal thereof, the owner and HUD mutually agree to terminate this contract and then enter into a new HAP contract, at current rents, pursuant to section 514(c) of MAHRA. In addition, if prior to the expiration of this renewal contract, the owner requests re-entry into the Mark-to-Market Program, it must submit a Contract Renewal Request Form for Reelection (see Attachment 3a(2) of HUD's section 8 Renewal Guide) thirty (30) days prior to such sunset date. HUD reserves the right to reassess the Project's eligibility for debt restructuring at the time such Request Form for Reelection is submitted. If a reelection to full debt restructuring has occurred, HUD will offer the Owner an interim restructuring contract (the "Interim Full Renewal Contract") at current rents (i.e., the market rents determined in this Renewal Contract), subject to the availability of appropriations in any year. Any such Interim Full Renewal Contract will be entered into pursuant to section 514(c) of MAHRA and will contain language that the Interim Renewal Contract shall be considered a "binding commitment", as that phrase is used in section 579, during the entire term of that Interim Renewal Contract.

(3) If HUD determines that the project is eligible for full debt restructuring, the Owner and HUD will amend this contract in its entirety by entering into a new HAP contract, at current rents (i.e., the market rents determined in this Watch List Renewal Contract). HUD will offer the Owner an interim full contract (the "Interim Full Renewal Contract") for up to twelve months at current rents subject to the availability of appropriations in any year. Any such Interim Renewal Contract will be entered into pursuant to section 514(c) of MAHRA and will contain language that the Interim Renewal Contract shall be considered a "binding commitment", as that used in section 579, during the entire term of that Interim Renewal Contract.

(4) If HUD determines that the property is no longer eligible for a full debt restructuring, HUD may decide, among other things, to: (a) offer the owner a Basic Renewal Contract; (b) continue the property on the Watch List; (c) refer the project to HUD's enforcement division; or (d) take other action as appropriate.

(5) Housing assistance payments shall only be paid to the Owner for contract units occupied by eligible families leasing decent, safe and sanitary units from the Owner in accordance with statutory requirements, and with all HUD regulations and other requirements. If the Contract Administrator determines that the Owner has failed to maintain one or more contract units in decent, safe and sanitary condition, and has abated housing assistance payments to the owner for such units, the Contract Administrator may use amounts otherwise payable to the Owner pursuant to the Renewal Contract for the purpose of relocating or rehousing assisted residents in other housing.

e. Contract units

The Renewal Contract applies to the Contract units.

5. Expiring Contract: Provisions Renewed

a. Except as specifically modified by the Renewal Contract, all provisions of the Expiring Contract are renewed (to the extent such provisions are consistent with statutory requirements in effect at the beginning of the Renewal Contract term).

b. Any and all provisions of the Expiring Contract concerning any of the following subjects are not renewed, and shall not be applicable during the renewal term:

(1) Identification of contract units by size and applicable contract rents;

(2) The amount of the monthly contract rents;

(3) Contract rent adjustments; and

(4) Project account (sometimes called “HAP reserve” or “project reserve”) as previously established and maintained by HUD pursuant to former Section 8(c)(6) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (currently Section 8(c)(5) of the Act, 42 U.S.C. 1437f(c)(5)). Section 8(c)(5) does not apply to the Renewal Contract, or to payment of housing assistance payments during the Renewal Contract term.

c. The Renewal Contract includes those provisions of the Expiring Contract that are renewed in accordance with this section 5.

6. Contract Rent

a. Contract rents

Throughout the Renewal Contract term, the contract rent for each bedroom size (number of bedrooms) shall be the contract rent amount listed in Exhibit A, which is attached to and, by this reference, is hereby made a part of the Renewal Contract.

b. Contract rent adjustments

There shall be no contract rent adjustments during the term of the Renewal Contract. Special adjustments shall not be granted.

7. Owner Warranties

a. The Owner warrants that it has the legal right to execute the Renewal Contract and to lease dwelling units covered by the contract.

b. The Owner warrants that the rental units to be leased by the Owner under the Renewal Contract are in decent, safe and sanitary condition (as defined and determined in accordance with HUD regulations and procedures), and shall be maintained in such condition during the term of the Renewal Contract.

8. Owner Termination Notice

a. Before termination of the Renewal Contract, the Owner shall provide written notice to the Contract Administrator and each assisted family in accordance with HUD requirements.

b. If the Owner fails to provide such notice in accordance with the law and HUD requirements, the Owner may not increase the tenant rent payment for any assisted family until such time as the Owner has provided such notice for the required period.

9. HUD Requirements

The Renewal Contract shall be construed and administered in accordance with all statutory requirements, and with all HUD regulations and other requirements, including changes in HUD regulations and other requirements during the term of the Renewal Contract. However, any changes in HUD requirements that are inconsistent with the provisions of the Renewal Contract, including the provisions of section 6 (contract rent), shall not be applicable. The Owner will submit, for the term of this contract, monthly accounting reports, as prescribed in HUD Handbook 4370.1, to the Multifamily HUB/Program Center Project Manager evidencing the financial condition of the project covered under this contract.

10. Statutory Changes During Term

If any statutory change during the term of the Renewal Contract is inconsistent with section 6 of the Renewal Contract, and if HUD determines, and so notifies the Contract Administrator and the Owner, that the Contract Administrator is unable to carry out the provisions of section 6 because of such statutory change, then the Contract Administrator or the Owner may terminate the Renewal Contract upon notice to the other party.

11. PHA Default

a. This section 11 of the Renewal Contract applies if the Contract Administrator is a PHA acting as Contract Administrator pursuant to an annual contributions contract (“ACC”) between the PHA and HUD. This includes a case where HUD has assigned the Renewal Contract to a PHA Contract Administrator, for the purpose of PHA administration of the Renewal Contract.

b. If HUD determines that the PHA has committed a material and substantial breach of the PHA’s obligation, as Contract Administrator, to make housing assistance payments to the Owner in accordance with the provisions of the Renewal Contract, and that the Owner is not in default of its obligations under the Renewal Contract, HUD shall take any action HUD determines necessary for the continuation of housing assistance payments to the Owner in accordance with the Renewal Contract.

12. Exclusion of Third-Party Rights

a. The Contract Administrator does not assume any responsibility for injury to, or any liability to, any person injured as a result of the Owner's action or failure to act in connection with the Contract Administrator’s implementation of the Renewal Contract, or as a result of any other action or failure to act by the Owner.

b. The Owner is not the agent of the Contract Administrator or HUD, and the Renewal Contract does not create or affect any relationship between the Contract Administrator or HUD and any lender to the Owner or any suppliers, employees, contractors or subcontractors used by the Owner in connection with implementation of the Renewal Contract.

c. If the Contract Administrator is a PHA acting as Contract Administrator pursuant to an annual contributions contract ("ACC") between the PHA and HUD, the Contract Administrator is not the agent of HUD, and the Renewal Contract does not create any relationship between HUD and any suppliers, employees, contractors or subcontractors used by the Contract Administrator to carry out functions or responsibilities in connection with contract administration under the ACC.

13. Written Notices

a. Any notice by the Contract Administrator or the Owner to the other party pursuant to the Renewal Contract shall be given in writing.

b. A party shall give notice at the other party's address specified in section 1 of the Renewal Contract, or at such other address as the other party has designated by a contract notice. A party gives a notice to the other party by taking steps reasonably required to deliver the notice in ordinary course of business. A party receives notice when the notice is duly delivered at the party's designated address.
