PART B – NOTIFICATIONS, CERTIFICATIONS AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT (cont.)8. SPECIAL PROGRAM INFORMATION

Certain FSA programs are, by law, designed to reach targeted applicants. If you are interested in any of the programs described here or have questions about these programs and whether you may qualify for a specific program, the FSA office processing your application will help you.

- A. SOCIALLY DISADVANTAGED APPLICANTS: A portion of FSA farm ownership, operating, and conservation loan funds are, by law, targeted to applicants who have been subjected to racial, ethnic or sex prejudice because of their identity as a member of a group, without regard to individual qualities. Under the applicable law, groups meeting this condition are: American Indians/Alaskan Natives, Asians, Blacks or African Americans, Native Hawaiians/Other Pacific Islanders, Hispanics and women. In addition, FSA has a down payment program, which receives special funding.
- B. BEGINNING FARMER ASSISTANCE: FSA has the authority to assist beginning farmers through the farm ownership, operating, and conservation loan programs. A portion of FSA farm ownership, operating, and conservation loan funds are, by law, targeted to beginning farmers. In addition, FSA has a down payment program, which receives special funding. In some States, FSA has agreements with State beginning farmer programs to help meet the credit needs of beginning farmers.
- C. LIMITED RESOURCE LOANS: Limited resource farm ownership and operating loans are available to qualified applicants. This program provides loans at reduced interest rates to low-income farmers whose operations and resources are so limited that they cannot pay the regular rates for FSA loans. The program is also intended to provide beginning farmers the opportunity to start a successful farming operation.

9. RIGHTS AND POLICIES.

- A. RIGHT TO FINANCIAL PRIVACY ACT OF 1978 (Public Law 95-630): FSA has a right of access to financial records held by financial institutions in connection with providing assistance to you as well as collecting on loans made to you or guaranteed by the Government. Financial records involving your transaction will be available to FSA without further notice or authorization but will not be disclosed or released by this institution to another Government Agency or Department without your consent except as required by law.
- B. THE FEDERAL EQUAL CREDIT OPPORTUNITY ACT: Prohibits creditors from discriminating against applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract), because all or a part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program, or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act.
- C. ECOA – RIGHT TO RECEIVE APPRAISAL: As part of the assistance provided by FSA, an appraisal report or written real state valuation may be required to determine the value of the property you intend to pledge as security. If FSA orders an appraisal or completes a written real estate valuation, you will receive a copy at no cost. You will receive a copy at least three business days prior to the closing of your loan or servicing action. On occasion, the three-day waiting period could cause a delay in loan closing. If you so choose, you have a right to waive this waiting period and a copy will be provided to you no later than the time of loan closing.
- D. FEDERAL COLLECTION POLICIES: Delinquencies, defaults, foreclosures and abuses of loans involving programs of the Federal Government can be costly and detrimental to your credit, now and in the future. The lender in this transaction, its agents and assigns as well as the Federal Government, its agencies, agents and assigns, are authorized to take any and all of the following actions in the event loan payments become delinquent: (1) Report your name and account information to a credit bureau; (2) Assess additional interest and penalty charges for the period of time that payment is not made; (3) Assess charges to cover additional administrative costs incurred by the Government to service your account; (4) Offset amounts owed to you under other Federal programs; (5) Refer your account to a private attorney, collection agency or mortgage servicing agency to collect the amount due, foreclose the mortgage, sell the property and seek judgment against you for any deficiency; (6) Refer your account to the Department of Justice for litigation; (7) Take action to offset your salary, or retirement benefits; (8) Refer your debt to the Department of the Treasury for cross-servicing and offset against any amount owed to you by any Federal Agency such as an income tax refund; and (9) Report any resulting written-off debt to the Internal Revenue Service as taxable income. All of these actions can and will be used to recover debts owed to the Federal Government when in its best interests.

PART C – CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURES

I have worked with the lender to develop a cash flow budget or farm operating plan which shows that there is sufficient cash inflow to pay for all cash outflow and supports repayment in full of the proposed commercial loan for which the subordination is requested.

I understand that until FSA executes a separate written instrument for subordination FSA's approval of this application will merely constitute and evidence FSA's consent, as lienholder, to the proposed transaction without in any way subordinating its liens, modifying the payment terms of my loans, or otherwise affect any FSA rights. If this application is approved, I agree to comply with such terms as may be set by FSA and to dispose of the proceeds as required.

I agree that none of the funds obtained as a result of this subordination will be used for a purpose that will contribute to excessive erosion of highly erodible land or the conversion of wetlands to produce an agriculture commodity as provided in 7 CFR part 12 or will adversely affect compliance with any of the environmental requirements of 7 CFR part 1b.

The statements and representations made above are made in connection with the request for a subordination of the loan security. The making of any false statement or misrepresentations herein may be a crime punishable under the Title 18 U.S.C. 1001. I certify that the statements made are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. Note: Whoever signs below should also initial and date each preceding page.
