General Comment

It's not totally clear to me what the change is regarding trophies. I support anything that makes sport hunting easier without encouraging poaching and within the biological limits determined by the home countries. I oppose anything which is burdensome on hunting beyond ecologically-justified limits such as quotas, bag limits, age and sex discrimination, and seasons, or cultural limits to takings--no regulations to discourage huntingfor the sake of discouraging hunting or punishing hunters. Otherwise I take no position. It seems like this is mostly oriented toward live elephants, which I am prepared to trust your judgement on.
