Before you begin Form G-325R, Biographic Information (Registration), please visit the Alien Registration Requirement page to answer some simple questions to find out if you need to register. If you are not sure whether you need to register, the tool available on this page may help you determine whether you must register. The questions in the tool are solely intended to help you determine whether you must submit Form G-325R. The tool is for informational purposes only. It is not legal advice. It is not a substitute for a consultation with an attorney or an accredited representative.

The Immigration and Nationality Act requires all aliens, with limited exceptions, to apply for registration and fingerprinting if you:

- Are 14 years old or older;
- Were not registered and fingerprinted (if required) when applying for a U.S. visa; and
- Remain in the United States for 30 days or longer for each period of stay

This may include children born in the United States who did not acquire U.S. citizenship at birth.

Parents and legal guardians of aliens under age 14 must ensure those aliens are registered. Within 30 days of reaching their 14th birthday, all previously registered aliens must apply for re-registration and fingerprinting.

After an alien registers and appears for fingerprinting (unless waived), DHS will issue evidence of registration. If you are an alien age 18 or older, you must carry and keep this evidence of registration in your personal possession at all times. If you are an unregistered alien (or previously registered alien who turns 14 years old) and you are in the United States for 30 days or longer for any period of stay, you must comply with these requirements. If you do not comply, you may face criminal and civil penalties, up to and including misdemeanor prosecution, the imposition of fines, and incarceration. Overview

G-325R, Biographic Information (Registration)

Form G-325R is intended to be used by aliens who have not yet complied with the alien registration requirements of INA 262 - 266, or “unregistered aliens.” The following groups of individuals are not required to register and should not submit Form G-325R:

- Citizens and nationals of the United States;
- Anyone currently outside of the United States;
- Aliens who have not yet remained, and do not intend to remain, in the United States for 30 days or longer;
- American Indians born in Canada who entered the United States under section 289 of the INA;
- Members of the Kickapoo Traditional Tribe of Texas who entered the United States under the Texas Band of Kickapoo Act; and
- Aliens present in the United States as nonimmigrants who have not ceased to be entitled to such nonimmigrant status under the following nonimmigrant classifications:
 - INA 101(a)(15)(A) (diplomats and other foreign government officials); or
 - INA 101 (a)(15)(G) (aliens associated with international organizations).

In addition, many aliens present in the United States have already complied with the alien registration requirements during their current period of presence in the United States and should not submit this form. Aliens who are already registered and should not submit this form include those who have been issued the following evidence/fall into the following classes:

- Aliens issued Form I-94/94W/94A in paper or electronic format admitted as nonimmigrants, even if the period of admission has expired;
- Aliens issued Form I-94 in paper or electronic format paroled into the United States under section 212(d)(5) of the INA, even if the period of parole has expired;
- Aliens issued Form I-94 in paper or electronic format who claim entry prior to July 1, 1924, and have satisfactorily established residence in the United States since prior to July 1, 1924;
- Aliens issued Form I-94 in paper or electronic format granted permission to depart without the institution of deportation proceedings;
- Aliens issued Form I-95, Crewmen’s Landing Permit as crewmen arriving by vessel or aircraft;
- Aliens issued Form I-185, Nonresident Alien Canadian Border Crossing Card;
- Aliens issued Form I-186, Nonresident Alien Mexican Border Crossing Card;
- Aliens issued Form I-221, I-221S, I-862, or I-863, placing them into exclusion, deportation, or removal proceedings;
- Lawful Permanent Residents (whose Form I-551, Permanent Resident Card, serves as proof of registration); and
- Aliens issued Form I-766, Employment Authorization Document.
- Also, a valid, unexpired nonimmigrant DHS admission or parole stamp in a foreign passport serves as evidence of registration.
- Also, anyone who submitted one of the forms designated at 8 CFR 264.1(a) and provided fingerprints (unless waived) and was not issued one of the pieces of evidence designated at 8 CFR 264.1(b), has complied with the registration requirement of INA 262.

If you have been issued one or more of these documents or fall into one or more of these classes, do not submit this form as you have already registered, unless you reached your 14th birthday and you must apply for re-registration and to be fingerprinted and you are not required to submit another form to apply for re-registration.

Please note that registration has no direct connection to your lawful immigration status, if any. For example, someone placed into removal proceedings is a registered alien but may have no lawful immigration status. Similarly, someone admitted as a nonimmigrant who overstays their period of admission has no lawful immigration status but is a registered alien.

What is your A-Number?

The A-Number is an immigration file number provided by U.S. immigration officials. We use your A-Number to identify your immigration records. It is a 7 to 9-digit number that begins with an “A” and can be found on correspondence or cards you have received from DHS, USCIS, or on immigration court records (for example, Form I-797, Receipt Notice; an Employment Authorization Document; a Permanent Resident Card). If you do not have an A-Number, USCIS may assign one to you.

☒ I do not have or know my A-Number.

Provide a 7, 8, or 9-digit number. If the A-Number is fewer than 9 digits, the system will automatically add zero(s) after the "A" and before the first digit so there is a total of 9 digits, for example: A-001234567.

A-

What is your U.S. Social Security number (SSN)?

☒ I do not have or know my U.S. Social Security number.

Provide a 9-digit Social Security number.

What is your USCIS Online Account Number?

You will only have an Online Account Number, or OAN, if you previously filed a form that has a receipt number that begins with IOE. If you filed the form online, you can find your OAN in your account profile. If you mailed us the form, you can find your OAN at the top of the Account Access Notice we sent you.

If you do not have a receipt number that begins with IOE, you do not have an OAN.

(The OAN is not the same as an A-Number)

☒ I do not have or know my USCIS Online Account Number.

Provide a 12-digit Online Account Number.
