File a Form	Select the form you want to file online. For some forms you will have the option to either fill out your form online or upload a completed form. Once you start, we will automatically save your information for 30 days, or from the last time you worked on the form. Fee waiver: Fee waivers can be requested online only when submitting certain benefit requests using the PDF filing option. If your desired benefit request is not eligible for PDF filing, you must file a paper version of both the Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver and the form for the specific benefit you are requesting. You can review the fee waiver guidance at www.uscis.gov/fee waiver.
Select the form you want to file online.	Before you begin Form G-325R, Biographic Information (Registration), please visit the Alien Registration Requirement page to answer some simple questions to find out if you need to register. If you are not sure whether you need to register, the tool available on this page may help you determine whether you must register. The questions in the tool are solely intended to help you determine whether you must submit Form G-325R. The tool is for informational purposes only. It is not legal advice. It is not a substitute for a consultation with an attorney or an accredited representative. The Immigration and Nationality Act requires all aliens, with limited exceptions, to apply for registration and fingerprinting if you: - Are 14 years old or older; - Were not registered and fingerprinted (if required) when applying for a U.S. visa; and - Remain in the United States for 30 days or longer for each period of stay Parents and legal guardians of aliens under age 14 must ensure those aliens are registered. Within 30 days of reaching their 14th birthday, all previously registered aliens must apply for re-registration and fingerprinting. After an alien registers and appears for fingerprinting (unless waived), DHS will issue evidence of registration. If you are an alien age 18 or older, you must carry and keep this evidence of registration in your personal possession at all times. If you are an unregistered alien (or previously registered alien who turns 14 years old) and you are in the United States for 30 days or longer for any period of stay, you must comply with these requirements. If you do not comply, you may face criminal and civil penalties, up to and including misdemeanor prosecution, the imposition of fines, and incarceration. G-325R, Biographic Information (Registration)		Form G-325R is intended to be used by aliens who have not yet complied with the alien registration requirements of INA 262 - 266, or “unregistered aliens.” The following groups of individuals are not required to register and should not submit Form G-325R: • Citizens and nationals of the United States; • Anyone currently outside of the United States; • Aliens who have not yet remained, and do not intend to remain, in the United States for 30 days or longer; • American Indians born in Canada who entered the United States under section 289 of the INA; • Members of the Kickapoo Traditional Tribe of Texas who entered the United States under the Texas Band of Kickapoo Act; and • Aliens present in the United States as nonimmigrants who have not ceased to be entitled to such nonimmigrant status under the following nonimmigrant classifications: - INA 101(a)(15)(A) (diplomats and other foreign government officials); or - INA 101 (a)(15)(G) (aliens associated with international organizations). In addition, many aliens present in the United States have already complied with the alien registration requirements during their current period of presence in the United States and should not submit this form. Aliens who are already registered and should not submit this form include those who have been issued the following evidence/fall into the following classes: • Aliens issued Form I-94/94W/94A in paper or electronic format admitted as nonimmigrants, even if the period of admission has expired; • Aliens issued Form I-94 in paper or electronic format paroled into the United States under section 212(d)(5) of the INA, even if the period of parole has expired; • Aliens issued Form I-94 in paper or electronic format who claim entry prior to July 1, 1924, and have satisfactorily established residence in the United States since prior to July 1, 1924; • Aliens issued Form I-94 in paper or electronic format granted permission to depart without the institution of deportation proceedings; • Aliens issued Form I-95, Crewmen's Landing Permit as crewmen arriving by vessel or aircraft; • Aliens issued Form I-185, Nonresident Alien Canadian Border Crossing Card; • Aliens issued Form I-186, Nonresident Alien Mexican Border Crossing Card; • Aliens issued Form I-221, I-2215, I-862, or I-863, placing them into exclusion, deportation, or removal proceedings; • Lawful Permanent Residents (whose Form I-551, Permanent Resident Card, serves as proof of registration); and • Aliens issued Form I-766, Employment Authorization Document. Also, a valid, unexpired nonimmigrant DHS admission or parole stamp in a foreign passport serves as evidence of registration. Also, anyone who submitted one of the forms designated at 8 CFR 264.1(a) and provided fingerprints (unless waived) and was not issued one of the pieces of evidence designated at 8 CFR 264.1(b), has complied with the registration requirement of INA 262. If you have been issued one or more of these documents or fall into one or more of these classes, do not submit this form as you have already registered, unless you reached your 14th birthday and you must apply for re-registration and to be fingerprinted and you are not required to submit another form to apply for re-registration. Please note that registration has no direct connection to your lawful immigration status, if any. For example, someone placed into removal proceedings is a registered alien but may have no lawful immigration status. Similarly, someone admitted as a nonimmigrant who overstays their period of admission has no lawful immigration status but is a registered alien. For more information, see USCIS website on Alien Registration Requirement.			https://www.uscis.gov/alienregistration

		Biometrics Services Appointment	USCIS may require you to appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your request. If we determine that a biometric services appointment is necessary, we will send you an appointment notice with the date, time, and location of your appointment. At your biometrics appointment, you must sign an oath reaffirming that: • You provided or authorized all information in the form; • You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your form; and • All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing. • If you do not attend your biometric services appointment, you have not completed your registration.
	After You Submit Your Form	USCIS Contact Center	For additional information on the form and Instructions about where to file, change of address, and other questions, visit the USCIS Contact Center page or call at 800-375-5283 (TTY 800-767-1833). The USCIS Contact Center provides information in English and Spanish.
Track your case online Respond to requests for information Provide your biometrics		After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign into your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS. If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or a Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account. We will contact you to schedule an appointment at an Application Support Center near you. At the appointment, we will get your fingerprints, photograph, and signature.					Next
Completing Your Form Online	Provide as many responses as you can We will automatically save your responses How to continue filling out your form Penalties	You should provide as many responses as you can. Incomplete or missing information may slow down processing of your case after you submit the form. We will automatically save your information when you select next to go to a new page or navigate to another section of the form. We will save your information for 30 days from today, or from the last time you worked on the form. After you start your form, you can sign into your account to continue where you left off. If you knowingly and willfully fail to file or refuse to register or be fingerprinted, make any misrepresentation or attempt to procure registration through fraud, falsify or conceal a material fact, or submit false information on your G-325R, Biographic Information (Registration) you may be fined or imprisoned as provided in Title 18 of the U.S. Code and 8 U.S.C. 1306.
	DHS Privacy Statement	AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this application, and the associated evidence, is collected pursuant to Section 103 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C 1101, 1103 (a)(1), 1201, 1302, 1303, and 1304. PURPOSE: The information you provide on Form G-325R, Biographic Information (Registration), is used by USCIS to permit you, as an unregistered alien, to apply for registration and fingerprinting in the United States via a USCIS online account portal. DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information, including your Social Security number (if applicable), and any requested evidence, may delay the processing of your registration form or result in your failure to fulfill your duty to register under the law. ROUTINE USES: DHS may share the information you provide on this registration with other Federal, state, local, and foreign government agencies and other authorized organizations, in accordance with 8 U.S.C. 1304(b). DHS follows approved routine uses described in the associated published system of records notices [DHS/USCIS/ICE/CBP-001 - Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System and DHS/USCIS-007 - Benefits Information System] and the published privacy impact assessment [DHS/USCIS/PIA-016 USCIS Computer Linked Application Information Management System (CLAIMS 3) and Associated Systems, DHS/USCIS/PIA-056(a) USCIS Electronic Immigration System (ELIS), and DHS/USCIS/PIA-061 Benefit Request Intake Process], which can be found at www.dhs.gov/privacy. DHS may also share the information, as appropriate, for law enforcement purposes or in the interest of national security.
	FBI Privacy Notice		USCIS may use your biometrics to obtain the criminal history records of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), for identity verification, to determine eligibility, to create immigration documents (for example, Permanent Resident Card, Employment Authorization Document), or any purpose authorized by the Immigration and Nationality Act. You may obtain a copy of your own FBI record using the procedures outlined at 28 CFR 16.30-16.34. For more information, please visit: Noncriminal Justice Applicant's Privacy Rights page.
