Before You Begin Form N-400, Application For Naturalization, Please Answer Some Simple Questions To Find Out If You Can Apply For Naturalization

These questions are solely intended to help you determine whether you may be eligible to submit the Application for Naturalization (N-400). This tool does not determine if you are actually eligible for citizenship. After you submit your application, USCIS will review your information and determine if you are eligible for citizenship through naturalization.

N-400, Application for Naturalization - PDF Intake

Form N-400, Application for Naturalization, is an application to become a naturalized U.S. citizen. Naturalization is the process you take to voluntarily become a U.S. citizen if you were born outside of the United States.

Before You Start Your Application Or Petition

Eligibility

You will need to select your basis for eligibility after you start your application. There is more information about specific eligibility requirements following these general eligibility requirements.

In general, you may apply for naturalization when you meet all the requirements to become a U.S. citizen. The following general eligibility requirements apply to most naturalization applicants:

- You are at least 18 years of age when you file;
- You have been a lawful permanent resident of the United States for at least 5 years;
- You have demonstrated continuous residence in the United States for at least 5 years;
- You have lived in the U.S. state or U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) district where you claim residence for at least 3 months before filing;
- You have demonstrated physical presence in the United States for at least 30 months (913 days);
- You demonstrate good moral character;
- You demonstrate an attachment to the principles of the U.S. Constitution;
- You demonstrate a basic knowledge of U.S. history and government (also known as “civics”) as well as an ability to read, write, speak, and understand basic English; and
- You are willing to take the Oath of Allegiance to the United States, and you are well disposed to the good order and happiness of the United States.

Lawful Admission for Permanent Residence	▼
Eligibility Based on Marriage to a U.S. Citizen	▼
Eligibility for the Spouse, Former Spouse, or Child of a U.S. Citizen under the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)	▼

Early Filing

If you are applying based on lawful permanent residence for 5 years, you may generally file your application up to 90 days before meeting the required 5-year period of continuous residence as a lawful permanent resident. If you are applying based on your marriage to a U.S. citizen, you may generally file up to 90 days before meeting the required 3-year period of continuous residence as a lawful permanent resident.

However, applicants filing up to 90 days before meeting the continuous residence requirement must still meet all other requirements for naturalization at the time of filing Form N-400. If these requirements are not met at the 90-day period, the applicant must wait to file until the requirement is met, otherwise, the application will be rejected or denied. For example:

- If you are applying under Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) section 319(a) as the spouse of a U.S. citizen, you must have been married to a U.S. citizen for at least 3 years at the time you file Form N-400; or
- If you request an exception to the English testing requirements, you must meet the requirements for the exception (age and years as a lawful permanent resident) when you file Form N-400.

Note: We will reject your application if you submit it too early.

Fee

We will automatically calculate the cost for you when you submit your application. For specific information about fees applicable to this form, see Form G-1055.

Note: Current and former members of the U.S. armed forces filing under INA section 328 or 329 are not required to pay the filing fee or the biometric services fee.

Fee Waiver: If you are requesting a fee waiver, you must file a paper version of both Form N-400 and your Form I-912 or written request for a fee waiver on paper and mail it to USCIS.

Refund policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service.

Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.
