

Non-Substantive Change Request

OMB Control Number: 3255-0005

FORM 14: ELECTRONIC SUBMISSION OF ALLEGATIONS AND DISCLOSURES

Date Submitted: September 3, 2026

Summary of Request

The United States Office of Special Counsel is making a non-substantive change request of an existing collection to include a new employment category created by Executive Order. These changes do not alter the burden on the user.

Description of Changes Requested

OSC seeks to add “Schedule C or Schedule P/C” to the list of categories for which we lack jurisdiction, and to add “Schedule P/C” as a menu option under “Employment Service Sub-Type” in OSC’s online filing portal. OSC seeks this change to bring the information collection into accord with Executive Orders (EO) 14171, Restoring Accountability to Policy-Influencing Positions Within the Federal Workforce and 14410, Implementing Schedule Policy/Career in the Excepted Service. These orders created a new category of federal employee, Schedule Policy/Career (P/C), over which OSC has no jurisdiction. The changes to OSC’s existing ICR will reflect this new category.

This request involves two non-material changes.

1) Add a bullet following the last item on the list from the screenshot below, stating:

- Schedule C or Schedule P/C.

No OSC Jurisdiction

OSC cannot take any action on complaints filed by employees of:

- the FBI (NOTE: FBI employees may appeal to, or seek corrective relief from, the U.S. Merit Systems Protection Board in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. § 2303(d), without filing with OSC. See 28 C.F.R. § 27.7.);
- the CIA, DIA, NSA, National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency, ODNI, National Reconnaissance Office or other intelligence agencies excluded from coverage by the President;
- the Government Accountability Office;
- the Postal Regulatory Commission; and
- the uniformed services of the United States (i.e., uniformed military employees). OSC does have jurisdiction over civilian employees of the armed forces.

2) Add “Schedule P/C” as a menu option under “Employment Service Sub-Type” in OSC’s online filing portal (screenshot of the relevant portal section below).

Employment Service Type	Employment Service Sub-Type	Employment Status Specify
Excepted Service	Schedule C	▼

Request includes revision of an existing question.

Description of Changes to Burden

There is no change to the burden.

Other Considerations