👤 Eligibility

VAWA Self-Petitioning Spouse or Child of a U.S. Citizen or Lawful Permanent Resident or a VAWA Self-Petitioning Parent of U.S. Citizen Son or Daughter

Alternate and/or Safe Address. If you do not feel safe in receiving correspondence regarding this petition at your home address, provide an alternate and/or safe mailing address in Part 1., Item Number 7. This address may be a post office box, the address of a friend, your attorney, a community-based organization that is helping you, or any other address where you can safely and punctually receive mail. If an alternate and/or safe mailing address is not provided in Part 1., Item Number 7., USCIS may use your home address or the address of your preparer, if any.

You may petition for immediate relative or family-sponsored immigrant classification for yourself (also known as a self-petition) if you:

1. Have a qualifying relationship with an abusive U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident;
 - A. Are now or were the spouse of an abusive U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident;
 - B. Are the child of an abusive U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident; or
 - C. Are the parent of an abusive U.S. citizen son or daughter who is at least 21 years of age when filing this petition;
2. Are eligible for immigrant classification based on that relationship;
3. Are now residing with or have resided with the U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident abuser in the past;

4. Have been battered by or have been the subject of extreme cruelty perpetrated by:

- A. Your U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident spouse during the marriage, or you are the parent of a child who has been battered by or has been the subject of extreme cruelty perpetrated by your abusive U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident spouse during your marriage;
- B. Your U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident parent while residing with that parent; or
- C. Your U.S. citizen son or daughter;

5. Are a person of good moral character; and

6. Are a spouse, and entered into the marriage to the U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident abuser in good faith.

If you are living abroad at the time of filing your petition, you may file the petition if:

1. The abuser is an employee of the U.S. Government;
2. The abuser is a member of the uniformed services; or
3. You were subjected to battery or extreme cruelty in the United States.

NOTE: You may file a self-petition within two years of the date of the U.S. citizen abuser's death, within two years of the U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident abuser's loss of status as a result of an incident of domestic violence, or within two years of the termination of the marriage to the U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident abuser if there is a connection between the termination of the marriage and the battery or extreme cruelty. For self-petitioning spouses, you may remarry after USCIS approves your self-petition without affecting your eligibility to become a lawful permanent resident or have grounds for revocation of the approved self-petition. Remarriage before the self-petition is adjudicated will result in the denial of the self-petition.

If you are currently overseas, your notice will instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to schedule an appointment.

At your biometrics appointment, you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

- You provided or authorized all information in the application;
- You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your application; and
