I-129CW, Petition for a CNMI-Only Nonimmigrant Transitional Worker

This form is used by an employer to petition U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for an alien to come as a nonimmigrant to the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI) temporarily to perform services or labor as a CNMI-Only Transitional Worker (CW-1 worker), who will enter or remain in the CNMI for the purpose of employment during the transition period, and is ineligible for another classification under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA). This form is used also by an employer to request an extension of stay or change of status for a CW-1 worker.

Form I-129CW consists of:

1. Basic petition; and
2. Additional Worker Attachment for Form I-129CW (required when more than one named beneficiary is included in the petition).

Before You Start Your Application Or Petition

Eligibility

Who May File Form I-129CW?

General. An employer may file this petition to classify an alien as a CW-1 Worker. In order to obtain the status, the worker must either be lawfully present in the CNMI, or must be coming from abroad to the CNMI with a CW-1 visa. The worker cannot be present in the United States, other than in the CNMI.

Fee

We will automatically calculate the cost for you before you submit your petition. For specific information about fees applicable to this form, see Form G-1055. There is an additional fee for Premium Processing Service.

Refund policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition, or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service.

Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.

Documents you may need

We will automatically determine which documents you should provide us as you fill out your petition. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documentation listed.

Biometrics services appointment

Biometrics services appointment for certain beneficiaries who will be working in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI)

After receiving your petition and ensuring completeness, USCIS will inform you in writing when the beneficiary needs to go to their local USCIS Application Support Center (ASC) for their biometrics services appointment. Failure to attend the biometrics services appointment may result in denial of your petition.

After You Submit Your Petition

Track your case online

After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign into your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS.

Respond to requests for information

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.

Provide your biometrics

We will contact the beneficiary to schedule an appointment at an Application Support Center near them, if applicable. At the appointment, we will get their fingerprints, photograph, and signature.

Receive your decision

The decision on Form I-129 involves a determination of whether you have established eligibility for the immigration benefit you are seeking. USCIS will notify you of the decision in writing.

Disability Accommodations/Modifications

To request a disability accommodation/modification, follow the instructions on your appointment notice or at www.uscis.gov/accommodationsinfo.

USCIS Contact Center

For additional information on the petition and instructions about where to file, change of address, and other questions, visit the USCIS Contact Center at www.uscis.gov/contactcenter or call 800-375-5283 (TTY 800-767-1833). The USCIS Contact Center provides information in English and Spanish.

Initial Processing

After you submit your PDF form online, we will check it for completeness. It may take up to 30 days for us to complete initial processing. You will receive a notification in your USCIS online account after your form has completed initial processing.

If your online PDF submission did not meet the criteria for initial processing, we will mail you a notice explaining why your submission could not be processed.

Mailed Receipt Notice

If your online PDF submission meets the criteria for initial processing, we will mail you a Receipt Notice to the mailing addresses provided on your form.

Track your case online

After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign into your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS.

Respond to requests for information

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.

Uploading Your Form Online

Filing by online PDF submission

Filing by online PDF submission is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information.

Complete the Getting Started section first

You should answer all questions in the Getting Started section first so we can best customize the rest of your online form experience.

Provide as many responses as you can

You should provide as many responses as you can. Incomplete fields or sections and missing information can slow down processing of your case after you submit your form.

DHS Privacy Notice

AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this petition, and the associated evidence, is collected under Title VII of the Consolidated Natural Resources Act of 2008 (CNRA), Public Law 110-229, the Consolidated and Further Continuing Appropriations Act, 2015, Public Law 113-235; the Northern Mariana Islands Economic Expansion Act, Public Law 115-53; and the Northern Mariana Islands U.S. Workforce Act of 2018 (the Workforce Act), Public Law 115-218 (all codified in 48 U.S.C. section 1806(d)); Immigration and Nationality Act section 214 (8 U.S.C. section 1184); and 8 CFR section 214.2(w).

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this petition is for an employer to petition for an alien to perform labor as a CW-1, CNMI-Only Transitional Worker. DHS uses the information you provide to grant or deny the immigration benefit you are seeking.

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information, including your Social Security number (if applicable), and any requested evidence, may delay a final decision or result in denial of your petition.

ROUTINE USES: DHS may share the information you provide on this petition and any additional requested evidence with other Federal, state, local, and foreign government agencies and authorized organizations. DHS follows approved routine uses described in the associated published system of records notice [DHS/USCIS/ICE/CBP-001 Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System of Records, DHS/USCIS-007 Benefits Information System, and DHS/USCIS-018 Immigration Biometric and Background Check] and the published privacy impact assessment [DHS/USCIS/PIA-016a Computer Linked Application Information Management System and Associated Systems] which you can find at www.dhs.gov/privacy. DHS may also share this information, as appropriate, for law enforcement purposes or in the interest of national security.

Paperwork Reduction Act

USCIS may not conduct or sponsor an information collection, and you are not required to respond to a collection of information, unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number. The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated at 3 hours and 34 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, gathering the required documentation and information, completing the petition, preparing statements, attaching necessary documentation, and submitting the petition. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to:

G-28, Notice Of Entry Of Appearance As Attorney Or Accredited Representative

The Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative is for attorneys and accredited representatives to provide information to establish their eligibility to appear for and act on behalf of an applicant, petitioner, requester, beneficiary or derivative, or respondent in immigration matters.

An attorney or accredited representative must complete and submit a new G-28 form for each client case. The G-28 can be started along with a client's new case or it can be added to a client's already-submitted case. USCIS will only recognize a completed G-28 once the client has reviewed and signed the form.

Before You Start Your Application Or Petition

Who should complete this form

You should only complete this form if you are an attorney or accredited representatives as defined in 8 CFR 1.2 and 1292.

Law students and law graduates

If you are a law student or law graduate who is working under the direct supervision of an attorney or accredited representative, you will need to provide your name on the form.

Foreign attorneys

If you are an attorney not licensed to practice law in the United States, you should not use this form. Instead, you will need to file the Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney in Matters Outside the United States (G-281).

Other representatives

If you are seeking to appear as a reputable individual as defined in 8 CFR 292.1(a)(3), you should not use this form. Instead, you will need to seek permission from DHS to appear with your client.

After You Submit Your Application, Petition, or Request

Initial Processing

After you submit your PDF form online, we will check it for completeness. It may take up to 30 days for us to complete initial processing. You will receive a notification in your USCIS online account after your form has completed initial processing.

If your online PDF submission did not meet the criteria for initial processing, we will mail you a notice explaining why your submission could not be processed.

Mailed Receipt Notice

If your online PDF submission meets the criteria for initial processing, we will mail you a Receipt Notice to the mailing addresses provided on your form.

Your client adds you as his or her representative

After you complete the G-28 and provide your signature, we will give you a one-time passcode to give to your client. Your client will need to sign in to his or her USCIS account (or create a new one) and enter this code to officially add you as a representative.

Your client adds you as his or her representative

After you complete the G-28 and provide your signature, we will give you a one-time passcode to give to your client. Your client will need to sign in to his or her USCIS account (or create a new one) and enter this code to officially add you as a representative.

Your client reviews and signs the G-28

Once your client adds you as a representative, he or she will need to review the information provided in the G-28. If all the information is correct, your client will accept the G-28 and then provide his or her signature. If the information is incorrect, your client will decline the G-28 and we will send it back to you to make updates.

Once your client accepts the G-28, he or she will then review each benefit form submitted with the G-28. If all information is correct, your client will provide his or her signature. If any information is incorrect, your client may decline and send back the benefit form(s) for you to make any updates.

If you are adding a G-28 to your client's already-submitted case, the case status will be updated referencing the G-28.

You submit and pay for your client's online form (for new cases)

Once your client reviews and signs the online form, a link will appear on your account home page that takes you to a page to submit the G-28 along with your client's online form, and pay the fee for your client's form (if there is one).

Filing by online PDF submission

Form requirements

When filing by online PDF submission, make sure your form:

- Is the current edition of the form;
- Is properly signed by you and your client;
- Includes all pages of the form, even if a page has been intentionally left blank; and
- Is arranged in order of the form page numbers.

Adding a new client

If you are filing a form for a new client by online PDF submission, you can add them to your client list as part of the filing process. Your client does not have to currently be in the client list in your account to begin an online PDF submission on their behalf.

There is no one-time passcode needed to complete an online PDF submission for a client. You must complete the PDF form and have your client review and sign it before proceeding with the online PDF submission process.

Client Signatures: When filing a form on behalf of a client using an online PDF submission you must complete the PDF form and have your client hand sign the document in wet ink before uploading the document. USCIS will not accept a stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature.

About Your New Client

Provide your new client's information to add them to the client list in your account.

After adding them you can:

- File other forms for this client by online PDF submission;
- Review their case status and notices; and
- Respond to their RFE's.

What is your client's current legal name?

Your current legal name is the name on their birth certificate, unless it changed after birth for a legal reason such as marriage or court order. Do not provide any nicknames here.

Given name (first name)* Middle name (if applicable)

Family name (last name)*

What is your current client's A-number?

☐ The Client does not know or have their A-Number

A#

Provide a U.S. or 9-digit number. If the A-Number is fewer than 9 digits, the system will automatically add zeros after the "0" and before the first digit so there is a total of 9 digits, for example: A 000000000.

What is your client's date of birth?

MM/DD/YYYY

What is your new client's email address?

Your new client's new email address must not be associated to any existing USCIS online accounts.

If your client has an existing USCIS online account, you must first connect your accounts using the A-Link Client App. Then enter a new draft for this client.

If you enter an email that does not match, the case will not be linked to your client's applicant account.

example: user@domain.com

Declaration And Certification

You must read and agree to the certification below. If you knowingly and willfully falsify or conceal a material fact or submit a false document with your application, we can deny your application and may deny any other immigration benefit. You may also face criminal prosecution and penalties provided by the law.

Copies of any documents submitted are exact photocopies of unaltered, original documents, and I understand that, as the petitioner, I may be required to submit original documents to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) at a later date.

I authorize the release of any information from my records, or from the petitioning organization's records that USCIS needs to determine eligibility for the immigration benefit sought. I recognize the authority of USCIS to conduct audits of this petition using publicly available open source information. I also recognize that any supporting evidence submitted in support of this petition may be verified by USCIS through any means determined appropriate by USCIS, including but not limited to, on-site compliance reviews.

If filing this petition on behalf of an organization, I certify that I am authorized to do so by the organization.

I certify, under penalty of perjury, that I have reviewed this petition and that all of the information contained in the petition, including all responses to specific questions, and in the supporting documents, is complete, true, and correct.
