The U.S. Census Bureau recently asked you to complete the 2026 Annual Integrated Economic Survey. Please access the survey using the information below. If additional time is needed to complete the survey, you may request a time extension.

Due Date:

1. Register or sign in at https://portal.census.gov
2. Enter your authentication code: XXXX-XXXX-XXXX

   Case-sensitive; if you copy and paste, ensure no blank spaces are captured.
3. Report by selecting "REPORT NOW." You can return to your account over multiple sessions to complete the survey.
4. If additional time is needed, click on "Options" and select "Time Extensions."

Please do not reply directly to this automated email. For additional information about the survey, please visit https://census.gov/aies/information. An Account Manager has been assigned to help your company complete the survey. You can reach out directly by phone to <account manager name> at <account manager's number> or send a secure message after logging in to the portal linked above. For a preview of the questions for your company, log in to the survey portal, and select "REPORT NOW." Questions can be downloaded from the Overview screen.

What is the Annual Integrated Economic Survey?

The Annual Integrated Economic Survey (AIES) is a re-engineered survey designed to integrate and replace seven mandatory business surveys into a streamlined single survey. The new format simplifies reporting by consolidating all necessary questions into one convenient platform, requiring you to answer only industry-specific content that directly relates to your company's activities.

With key data items standardized across all sectors, the Annual Integrated Economic Survey offers a holistic annual picture of the U.S. economy. Your valuable data serve as a critical input in calculating the Gross Domestic Product (GDP), empowering policymakers and businesses, including your own, to make informed and data-driven decisions.

Thank you in advance for your time and participation, and for helping the U.S. Census Bureau measure America's people and economy.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Sprung
Acting Chief for Economy-Wide Statistics Division

NOTICE OF FAILURE TO PROVIDE MANDATORY RESPONSE

Our records indicate that we have not received your 2026 Annual Integrated Economic Survey response. If you have submitted your survey recently, thank you for your participation. You may verify your filing status by logging into your account at https://portal.census.gov.

If you have not yet reported, we remind you that your response is REQUIRED BY LAW. Title 13, United States Code, Sections 131 and 182, authorizes this collection. Sections 224 and 225 require your response. Section 9 requires that we keep your answers STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL.

Although Title 13 (Section 224) and the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984 (18, U.S.C. 3559 and 3571) allow for possible prosecution of responsible officials and penalties up to $5,000 (and still require response), the U.S. Census Bureau prefers to work cooperatively with businesses like yours to ensure we gather and distribute reliable statistics about the U.S. economy. We ask for your help in meeting that goal, recognizing that we are relying on your valuable time and effort to comply with this request.

Online reporting is safe, easy, and convenient with a secure account on the Respondent Portal. For additional information about the survey, please visit https://census.gov/aies/information. An Account Manager has been assigned to help your company complete the survey. Please use the information listed below to contact your Account Manager for assistance. For a preview of the questions specific to your company, log in to the survey portal, and select "REPORT NOW." Questions can be downloaded from the Overview screen.
