I-485 Supplement A to Form I-485, Adjustment of Status Under Section 245 - PDF Intake

If you are disqualified from adjusting status under INA section 245(a), you may be eligible to adjust status under INA section 245(i). For more information on adjusting under INA section 245(i), see the USCIS Policy Manual Volume 7, Part C, 245(i) Adjustment https://www.uscis.gov/policy-manual/volume-7-part-c.

You should use Supplement A if you seek to adjust status under INA section 245(i).

You cannot adjust status based on filing Supplement A alone. You may file Supplement A if you are eligible for a visa under a family-based, employment-based, special immigrant, or Diversity Visa immigrant category and:

Before You Start Your Application Or Petition

Eligibility

You may file Supplement A only if:

1. ONE of the following applies to you:

   A. You are or were the principal beneficiary of an immigrant petition or application for permanent labor certification properly filed on or before January 14, 1998, which was approvable when filed;

   B. You are or were the principal beneficiary of an immigrant petition or application for permanent labor certification properly filed on or after January 15, 1998, but on or before April 30, 2001, which was approvable when filed and you were physically present in the United States on December 21, 2000;

   C. You are or were the derivative beneficiary of an immigrant petition or application for permanent labor certification properly filed on or before January 14, 1998, which was approvable when filed;

   D. You are or were the derivative beneficiary of an immigrant petition or application for permanent labor certification properly filed on or after January 15, 1998, but on or before April 30, 2001, which was approvable when filed and the principal beneficiary was physically present in the United States on December 21, 2000; or

   E. You are currently the spouse or child (unmarried and under 21 years of age) eligible to accompany or follow to-join a principal or derivative beneficiary described in Items A. - D. above.

NOTE: "Properly filed" and "approvable when filed" are explained in the What Evidence Must You Submit to Establish Your Eligibility for Adjustment of Status under INA Section 245 section of the I-485 Supplement A instructions.

AND

1. ALL of the following apply to you:

   A. You are physically present in the United States;

   B. You are eligible to receive an immigrant visa because you are the current beneficiary of an immigrant petition or you were selected for a Diversity Visa for the current fiscal year (or because you are the spouse or child described in Item 1.E. above);

   C. An immigrant visa is immediately available to you at the time you file your application;

NOTE: Visit the Visa Availability and Priority Dates website at https://www.uscis.gov/green-card/green-card-processes-and-procedures/visa-availability-priority-dates/adjustment-of-status-filing-charts-from-the-visa-bulletin to determine whether an immigrant visa is immediately available.

   D. You are admissible to the United States for lawful permanent residence or eligible for a waiver of inadmissibility or other form of relief; and

   E. You are paying the required filing fee as described Form G-1055, available at www.uscis.gov/g-1055.

Fee

We will automatically calculate the cost for you when you submit your application. For specific information about fees applicable to this form, see Form G-1055.

Refund Policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service.

Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information, or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.

Evidence

When you file your application, you must submit all evidence and supporting documentation listed in the What Evidence Must You Submit to Establish Your Eligibility for Adjustment of Status under INA Section 245(i).

Evidence requirements may vary depending on the immigrant category you are applying under. See the Additional Instructions for information on whether any general evidence requirements do not apply to you, or if you have other evidence requirements specific to your immigrant category.

Biometric services appointment

USCIS may require you to appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your application or petition. If we determine that a biometric services appointment is necessary, we will send you an appointment notice with the date, time, and location of your appointment. If you are currently overseas, your notice will instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to schedule an appointment.

At your biometrics appointment, you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

1. You provided or authorized all information in the supplement;

2. You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your supplement; and

3. All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.

If you do not attend your biometric services appointment, we may deny your supplement.

For applicants and dependents who appear before an immigration judge, failure to attend a biometric services appointment, without good cause, may result in the immigration judge finding that your supplement was abandoned, and USCIS may also deny any other supplement you filed with USCIS.

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

After You Submit Your Supplement

Initial Processing

After you submit your PDF form online, we will check it for completeness. It may take up to 30 days for us to complete initial processing. You will receive a notification in your USCIS online account after your form has completed initial processing.

If your online PDF submission did not meet the criteria for initial processing, we will mail you a notice explaining why your submission could not be processed.

Mailed Receipt Notice

If your online PDF submission meets the criteria for initial processing, we will mail you a Receipt Notice to the mailing addresses provided on your form.

Track your case online

After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign into your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS.

Respond to requests for information

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.

Provide your biometrics

We will contact you to schedule an appointment at an Application Support Center near you. At the appointment, we will get your fingerprints, photograph, and signature.

Attend your interview

After your biometrics appointment, we will schedule your interview at a local USCIS field office (unless you qualify for a special accommodation). At the interview, you will answer questions about your application and take the civics and English tests as required.

Uploading Your Form Online

Filing by online PDF submission

Filing by online PDF submission is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information.

Complete the Getting Started section first

You should answer all questions in the Getting Started section first so we can best customize the rest of your online form experience.

Provide as many responses as you can

You should provide as many responses as you can. Incomplete fields or sections and missing information can slow down processing of your case after you submit your form.

We will automatically save your responses

We will automatically save your information when you select "Next" to go to a new page or navigate to another section of the form. We will save your information for 30 days from today, or from the last time you worked on the form.

How to continue filling out your form

After you start your form, you can sign in to your account to continue where you left off.

DHS Privacy Notice

AUTHORITIES: USCIS is collecting the information requested on this application, and the associated evidence, under INA section 245.

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this application is to determine if you have established eligibility to adjust your status to that of a lawful permanent resident of the United States or register permanent residence. DHS will use the information you provide to grant or deny your application to adjust status to lawful permanent resident.

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information, including your Social Security number (if applicable), and any requested evidence, may delay a final decision or result in denial of your application.

ROUTINE USES: DHS may, where allowable under relevant confidentiality provisions, share the information you provide on this application, and any additional requested evidence, with other Federal, state, local, and foreign government agencies and authorized organizations. DHS follows approved routine uses, as described in the associated published system of records notices [DHS/USCIS/ICE/CBP- 001 Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System of Records, DHS/USCIS-007 Benefits Information System, and DHS/USCIS-018 Immigration Biometric and Background Check] and the published privacy impact assessments [DHS/USCIS/PIA-016(a) Computer Linked Application Information Management System], which can be found at www.dhs.gov/privacy.

DHS may also share the information, as appropriate, for law enforcement purposes or in the interest of national security.

Proof of being physically present

If you qualify to apply for adjustment of status under INA section 245(i) based on an immigrant petition or application for permanent labor certification filed on or after January 15, 1998, you must prove that the principal beneficiary of that petition or application was physically present in the United States on December 21, 2000. Documents you may submit as evidence of physical presence include:

- Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record
- The nonimmigrant visa page of the principal beneficiary's passport
- Form I-512L
- Other U.S. Government-issued document showing admission or parole into the United States after inspection by an immigration officer
- A Notice to Appear in Immigration Court
- Official correspondence or other notices from a U.S. Government agency
- A state driver's license
- Income tax or property tax records, returns, or payments
- School or college transcripts and records
- Hospital or doctor's records
- Lease agreements and rental receipts
- Utility bill receipts
- Employment records, such as payroll statements or pay stubs
- Bank and credit card statements and records

In some cases, a single document may suffice to prove physical presence, but often you will need to submit several documents. USCIS will ordinarily place the greatest weight on government-issued documents.

File upload requirements

- Clear and readable.
- Accepted file formats: JPEG, JPG, PDF, PNG, TIF or TIFF
- No encrypted or password-protected files.
- If your documents are in a foreign language, upload a full English translation and the translator's certification with each original document.

Proof of Relationship

If you qualify to apply for adjustment of status under INA section 245 because you are or were a derivative beneficiary of a qualifying petition or application, you must prove the required relationship to the principal beneficiary by submitting a marriage certificate (for spouse) or birth certificate (for child). This evidence must show that the claimed relationship existed at the time the qualifying petition or application was properly filed. You do not need to show that the relationship still exists.

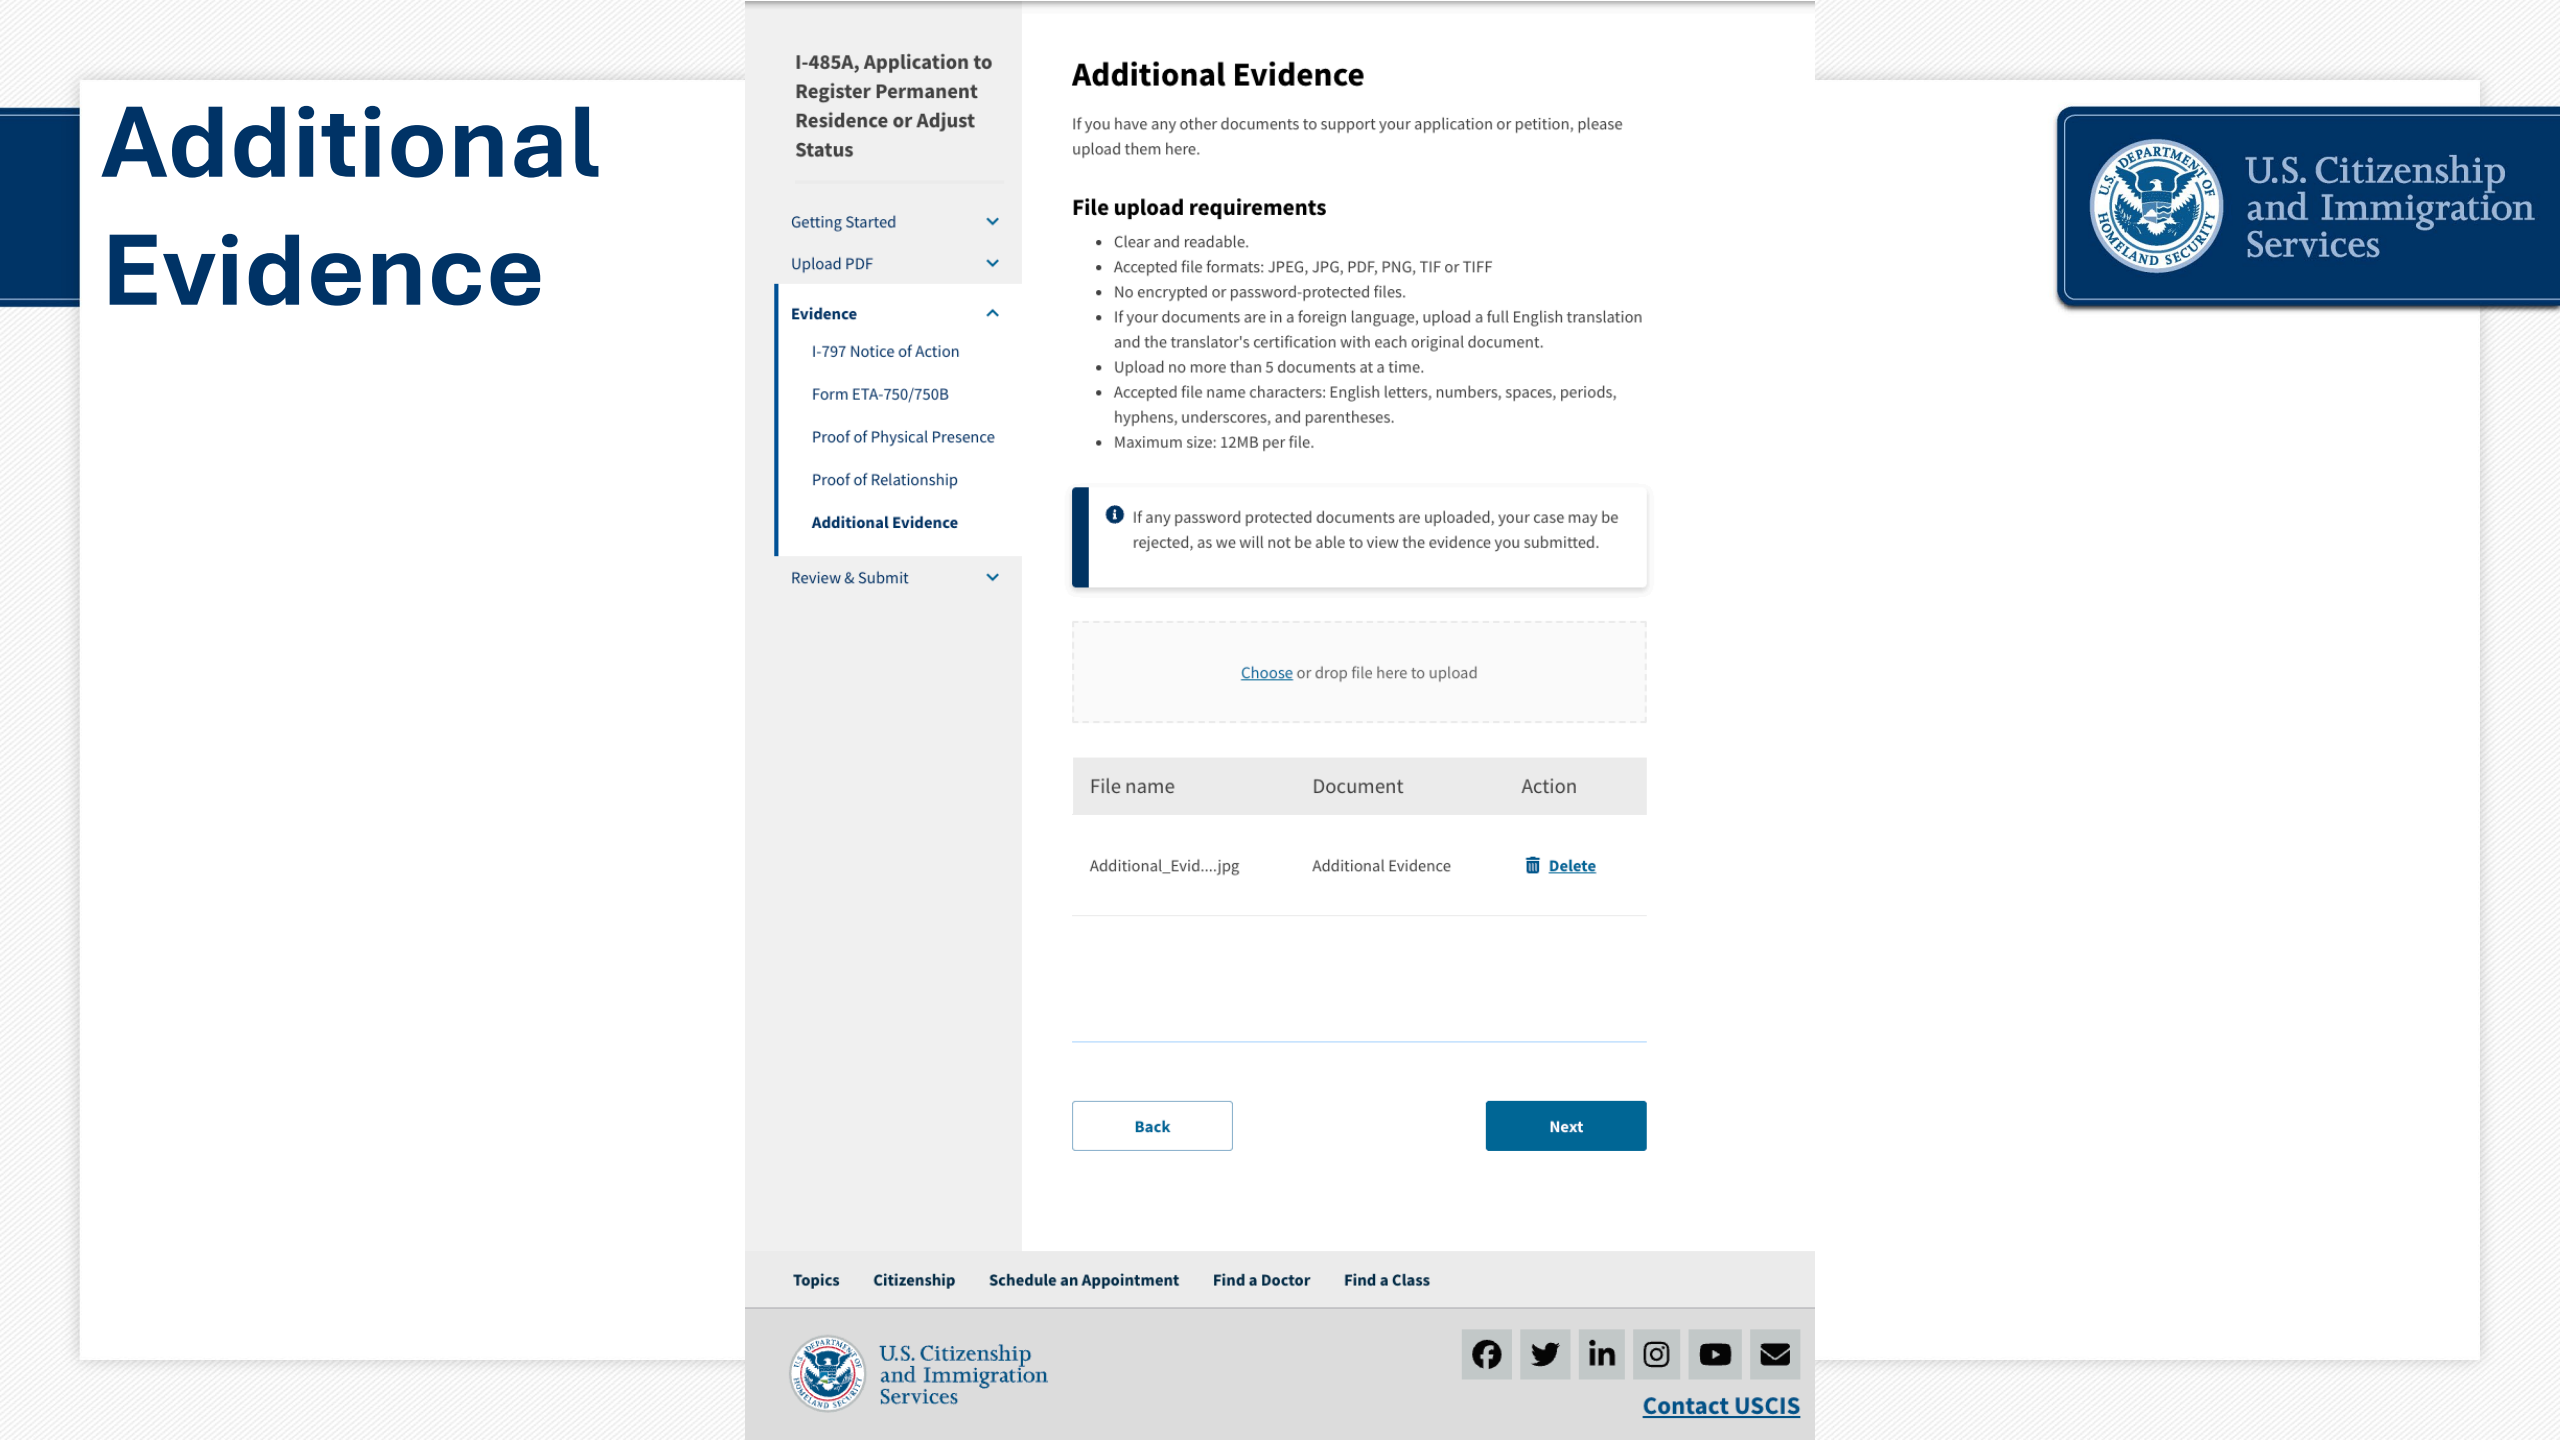

File upload requirements

Declaration And Certification

You must read and agree to the certification below. If you knowingly and willfully falsify or conceal a material fact or submit a false document with your application, we can deny your application and may deny any other immigration benefit. You may also face criminal prosecution and penalties provided by the law.

Copies of any documents I have submitted are exact photocopies of unaltered, original documents, and I understand that USCIS may require that I submit original documents to USCIS at a later date. Furthermore, I authorize the release of any information from any and all of my records that USCIS may need to determine my eligibility for the immigration benefit that I seek.

I furthermore authorize release of information contained in this application, in supporting documents, and in my USCIS records, to other entities and persons where necessary for the administration and enforcement of U.S. immigration law.

I understand that USCIS may require me to appear for an appointment to take my biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) and, at that time, if I am required to provide biometrics, I will be required to sign an oath reaffirming that: 1. I reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, my application; and 2. All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.

I certify, under penalty of perjury, that all of the information in my application and any document submitted with it were provided or authorized by me, that I reviewed and understand all of the information contained in, and submitted with, my application and that all of this information is complete, true, and correct.
